

Kay Bonham

It's been my pleasure to serve on your Board since March of 2018. I currently serve as the Chair of the Architectural Control Committee. My husband Charlie and I have been active members of this community since we purchased our home on Excelso in 2014. We love this community and it would be my pleasure to continue on the board. Thank you in advance for your support.